

The image features a dark navy blue background. In the four corners, there are white, stylized circuit board traces that branch out and end in small circles, resembling electronic components or data paths.

BIT

An abstract graphic is positioned behind the letter 'I'. It consists of several horizontal, rounded rectangular bars of varying lengths and colors, including teal, brown, and dark green. These bars are stacked vertically, with some overlapping. Below the bars, there is a circular arrangement of colored dots in teal, brown, and dark green, forming a ring-like structure.

The image features a solid black background with the word "VIDEO" centered in a large, white, sans-serif font. In each of the four corners, there are white, stylized circuit board traces that branch out and end in small circles, resembling electronic components or connectors.
